

COME BACK TO ME

AUGUST 4, 2010

MESSAGE FROM THE LORD

YAHWEH SAYS IT:

Write about how people have turned away from Me, Susanna, and how they have gone after other gods. Write how they have become unfaithful to Me, an adulterous generation. They want My hand but not My face. They seek the gifts but not the Giver. They have become lazy, satisfying their own needs, neglecting to seek Me first.

What do they expect? Do they expect Me to be close when they dishonor Me? They must write My Word on their hearts. Stop giving Me lip service. I am the God of all. I must come first. There should be no other gods before Me, yet people have their homes and their lives overshadowed by idols. The idols are as dung in My eyes. Their offerings to Me are as dung because of their association with the world.

No more. No more can they praise Me with their lips, and their heart is far from Me. No more. I do not receive these offerings. I do not receive them. They want to win in their lives, yet they are turning to horoscopes instead of the One True God. How can I honor this? How can I? My people have turned from serving Me. They are serving false gods. Their hearts have been consumed by the things of this world.

My heart aches for My people. My heart longs to love on My people in such a way where there is freedom in their lives, breakthrough, and deliverance from the traps of the enemy. My heart longs for this, to see My people get back what is already available for them. What is available is My heart. My heart is available. My heart. My heart longs to connect with their hearts. My heart longs for intimacy.

Hear the longing of My heart. Hear My heartbeat. My children, My heart is crying. My heart is longing. My heart is longing for fellowship with you. My heart is longing for intimacy with you. Come back to Me. Come back to Me, and let Me be your First Love. Come back to Me. I want to shower My love on you. I want to shower My heart on you and give you good things and see you healed and see you restored and renewed. I want this.

Turn away from your sin. Turn away from the cares of this world, from the false gods. Turn back to your First Love. Come back to Me, My love, My beloved, My precious ones. Don't stay in rebellion. The time is short. The time is now here for true repentance. The time is now here for true repentance.

Hear My heart. Hear My heartbeat. Let us beat as one. Search for Me. Seek after Me. Look for Me. Seek Me, and you shall find Me. I am here longing for our reunion. I am longing. I am calling. Come. Come now. Don't waste another moment out of My presence. Don't look for the false. Look for Me. Look for Me.

Don't wait. Time is short. This moment will not be forever. Don't wait. Hear My cry for you, My love. Come. Come back to Me.
