

WHAT IF I DID RAISE PAUL?

March 12, 2024

10:39 p.m.

YAHWEH SAYS IT:

What if I did raise him, servant? Write it, what I share with you. Servant, today's prophets do not hear Me in this way. They fumble around, trying to figure out what I am saying. Why? There is a blanket covering over the Church, those who are under the power of the Great Holy Spirit. And their ability to hear and see as if a prophet of old is not enabled. They pretend. And some do have a moment where they can grasp what I want, but they cannot formulate the fullness of My words.

I trained you in this way of engaging with Yahweh, not so you can show off but so you will declare by REPEATING MY MESSAGE concerning the Age of the Antichrist. Saying your own words means nothing, for I do not bend to any human. I weigh what needs to be done, but no human can make Me do what they would will.

I know we need to finish these scapegoat letters, but what did I tell you was more important? These Altar books are more important, for they are the catalyst we will use on social media outlets to share how Yahweh engages your way. You are of no title, of no reputation, of barely any lookers of your work. You are prepared for both sides to come against you. Both camps (Cessationists and Charismatics) will speak out against you.

And that's how I want it, where you stand with Yahweh, not depending on any human to back you up. One minute, they praise you. The next minute, they say you are fake, a false prophet, a heretic, jezebel, and whatever other name they can think of. Well good. That would mean that only Yahweh can defend you. Let it be so. Do not beg them to want you on their programs. I want Gordon in Virginia Beach at your old workplace to reach out. I want you to say something on the air, something that I will use to bring forward a new era by having you repeat something I say.

That is what a prophet of old would do: repeat what I say. Prophets of old were literally My mouthpiece. I would tell them what I wanted, and they would repeat it. There were no classes to learn how to hear from Me. I spoke; they heard Me. And today, I can speak to anyone. But everyone is not prophetic. And everyone will not carry prophet traits to walk in the office of the prophet. I can take seasons, decades, many years, and stay quiet, just as I did between the Old and New Testaments. What if I did that now? What if that's how it's been for many centuries? But what if it's now time for a new era? What if grace has to phase out?

In preparation for the Age of the Antichrist, I have to make room for Satan to reign through his figurehead. Pure Evil and Master Deceiver, along with Murder—very powerful demons, must take the world stage. Yahweh will not bend and submit under Satan. The Great Holy Spirit governs the Church, holding back great evil. But one day, the level of evil will greatly surpass what any evil world leader did. They will skin people alive, those evil leaders who will work alongside Satan's world leader. Pure Evil, a very powerful demon, will bring great torment to those who endure that horrible tribulation. Now is the time to turn away from sinful living and repent. People, repent of your sinful living.

Think about why so many people are beginning to "awaken" to hear something. Master Deceiver is infiltrating as many Christian outlets as possible to veer those in the Church to believe a lie. But why? Now is the time for the full pushing of the last days, and Satan wants to bring a distraction to turn people away from hearing the true voice of Yahweh to listening to anything that will tickle their ears and give them some form of relief to their spiritual hunger. Satan's side is coming forward, bringing great distraction, making it appear that it is so much more fun serving Satan. But that's the deception.

There is a young man who died very young. You saw his face, servant, when I showed you what I would want to do with his way. I told you what I would want to do with him for quite a few years now. No one actually believes you when I said I would actually want to raise him. But in all reality, I will raise all of the dead one day. So, there is no discrepancy in saying Yahweh says that.

But what if I want to raise Paul before the two main resurrections of Scripture? What would happen if I did that? How would I do it? I would have you travel by the Spirit as Philip did in Scripture. I would have you stand near his grave. And you will know My plan when you are there and what I am about to do. I would tell you certain words to say, and all you would have to do is repeat them. You would not have to conjure up anything. You would not have to say a fancy prayer. You would repeat My words, praying to Yahweh, and I would raise him. What if I wanted to? Why would I do this? It's to prove the upcoming resurrections. And not only that. I want to take Hollywood; I want to strip it.
