

Letter Two: Scapegoat Justin

January 29, 2024

THE ENTRY NOTE

FROM YAHWEH:

You are viewed as the one the people would blame for many churches not being enabled to believe in Yahweh's unhindered ability to engage His creation. This method of presenting Yahweh is bringing forward a way to view you as a scapegoat, a leading representative in your circles who influenced people to think We—Yahweh—aren't able to give real messages, hearings, conversations, and impartations into this current Church time.

We do not claim you to be a heathen. We say you are a mark of representation of those who say We cannot go and engage in actual active placement in this current placing of the Church era. So, you will be carrying a way to become a scapegoat when the people feel the way you speak out is not fully without unkind sayings and misunderstandings. And these folks will say you are the one who led them astray to have a parting from Yahweh dealing with the world through active engagement.

Why, Justin, would I come across so harsh to you? Are you hurting My sheep? Are you bringing false gods to the people? No, I do not say that way. What would Yahweh have to look at from your way? You do not have a plan of complete understanding, yet you carry regurgitated sayings with limited seeing to build your cases. You view others with a marking of a scapegoat, saying they carry the leading ways of various movements. Still, you would throw away the possibility that Yahweh can speak if He chooses based on how your mentors say to remove all added ways of possibilities of Yahweh bringing active engagement.

See how your circles of influence look from your camp: To your group, everyone who believes that Yahweh can still engage His creation (by the Spirit speaking, using a form of communication in words or active spiritual ways) is automatically considered fake or not living within Yahweh's will; this is how your way and your circle drink that. You close off the way to having any seeing. To you, in your presentation of hearing in spiritual matters, a lack of power exists in Yahweh due to the tainting of spiritual engagement based on how others yield their evil ways of saying Yahweh spoke when He didn't. You turn away from all prospects that there could be an active intervention with Yahweh because so many people tell lies in the name of Yahweh.

Wounded people struggle with what has brought them pain and have a difficult time separating the real engagement from Yahweh from the false and would purposely place all engagement as evil and say that no good thing can live in that movement that hurt them. Did you forget? Only Yahweh knows those who are really His and Yahweh will bring a separation in due time. Purposely wolf-acting persons who try to hurt the sheep should be put away, but think about this: what if others in those "misled" groups are also just saying what they heard throughout the years, regurgitated and unchallenged information? Shouldn't you move in a way to bring an awareness within the "misled" groups and not solely speak of your grievances to those who speak your regurgitated sayings?

THE REALITY OF YAHWEH

YAHWEH CONTINUES:

I care greatly that you are doing an evangelism work, but should an evangelist take most of the training, preaching, correction, and dealings to those he thinks have it "all together"? Shouldn't the evangelist go to the ones who are hurting and need Yahweh? If you are in this office of evangelist, shouldn't you go out and bring in real salvation stories of how you preached to the ones you claim are in error?

This look at your way is what makes you a scapegoat: you speak to those who take your opinion as a standing way to engage Yahweh, and yet these same people will one day see that you made them into who they are: speaking regurgitated sayings from those who spoke into your living. A scapegoat. A figurehead. One of those they will throw away for giving them these teachings that are not biblically based, carrying a limited understanding of the One who still actively governs.

It is a labeling of other groups into spiritual classes of people when there should actually only be one Body of Christ. What kind of unified ways would I have prayed for during the three-year earthly ministry? Is it to see a manifestation of these cliques and services of loyalty to a person or a moving of beliefs (charismatic or cessationist)? What is the purpose of praying that the Body would be one? All should be living under the submission of Yahweh, paying attention to what Yahweh gives in His written Word. That's how they want to say you are, that you are fully closed off to the notion that Yahweh would engage His creation in direct encounters.

What would Yahweh say here to these sayings? I can stop speaking for many years at a time while remaining active in how We govern humans and their daily living. The way that Yahweh deals with the people today is not similar to how humans engaged Me in the days of old, yet some people try to fake it today, pretending to have some way of hearing Me as was done with the prophets of old.

My way of sending judgments and hard ways of counsel is dampened in the Church era, not quickly revealed due to grace. The Old Testament timing operated quite differently, where quick judgments and separated ways from Yahweh occurred. What has happened in this Church era? The grace plan governs how the Church drinks from Yahweh, and with this way of grace, there is a hiding or a dampening of My potent presence.

I am the same God of the Old Testament. I am not silent because someone says, "Yahweh should no longer talk to us based on how much time has passed. So, let's take a couple of old writings from the Bible times, and let's say the writings are worth more based on who the writer was and how they were considered authoritative." Nonsense. The writer did not make the writing authoritative. It is Yahweh yielding it that brings a saying into a standing order. Yahweh reveals that what is given is His will based on the covenant He stands with to work with the one who says His will.

Throw away the writings of Solomon with that plan of considering a work to have greater value based on the writer. Solomon turned to worship false demonic gods, and he broke covenant with Yahweh, yet look at how Solomon's writings are under a protective Church cover as authoritative due to how Yahweh gave a covenant with Solomon in the first place. Solomon's task provided him with a platform, not his character or way of living (stemming from his heart).

TIME IS STILL ACTIVE

YAHWEH CONTINUES:

Now, look at how the churches follow their way of upbringing, and I can see how the people are craving their own favorite social media speaker. What about how Yahweh yields His prophetic words throughout the world in a constant, stable way? Look at how Yahweh governs the world. Seasons and harvests will come forward. Winter comes with a plan of consistent standing, as do the other ways of order.

But what about how the planets orbit and how the Earth takes in a blanket of breathable air? Is this all by a form of chance? Is Yahweh sitting in Heaven with duct tape over His mouth, looking down from Heaven with puppet strings on His hands, holding all the planets and stars in position?

Look at this in an accurate view: Yahweh created all. Yahweh gave a speaking way and said, "Let there come forward..." and with that coming forward, there is a requirement to "hold it all together." This way of "holding it all together" is enabled by Yahweh's PROPHET words. The prophetic sayings of Yahweh stem in Yahweh, for Yahweh is self-sustaining.

Creation is maintained, kept in a standing order, by a continual Prophet trait stemming from the sustaining way of Yahweh. The active Prophet Trait words from Yahweh continually push through time the material that came into existence (manifested) from His words. Yahweh maintains what He created with His sustaining power stemming from His spoken words. Creation is still standing in an active place (seedtime and harvest, etc.) by My Prophet Words.

Yahweh is the Head Prophet. Yahweh has an active saying of Prophet Words (that stem in Him) that holds creation in place. The Prophet's office trait that stems from Yahweh is active, regardless of whether a human is alive to operate in it, for Yahweh is the never-ending source of all of His office placements. Yahweh continually yields forward (or produces) the Prophet's office based on how the office traits stem from Him, and Yahweh can never let His Word fail. To keep Yahweh's Word in an active placing will need active surging to fuel the written Word. The surging is always coming out from Yahweh. No human has the power to bring prophetic words forward in their human strength.

The written Word still needs the powerful Prophet Yahweh to bring forward what is yet to come, and to say that Yahweh has to close off the Prophet office would say there also needs to be a repercussion showing a display of dead or inactive words from a shutting down to any prophetic saying of Scripture.

The written Word must stay active while it's in the process of manifesting through time. Yahweh's power from His words carries the Word along. With Yahweh's Prophet trait remaining in an active place, Yahweh's written Word yields an active place. The Words of Scripture stay active and alive due to Yahweh being active. Yahweh remains active in His placement of sayings.

The surging from the Prophet Yahweh brings forward the words, carries them, and then moves them out. Yahweh brings a Prophet weighing (trait) that pushes all His plans in the written Word! "God-breathed" words require Yahweh to say them FIRST through revealing so they can yield out into natural living. And these God-breathed words in Scripture will stay in an active place stemming from Yahweh until fully manifested, bringing forward the covenant rooted in His Prophet sayings, empowered by Yahweh directly.

Yahweh is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Yahweh yields forward life into the written Word, bringing written Words to a God-breathed way, and to say there cannot be any new words would bring a plan of nullification to Yahweh's plans that are still yet to be pushed forward even from Scripture. Why would Yahweh "shutting down" His Prophet office nullify Scripture and make it become dead and no longer in an active placing? Yahweh will maintain His word regardless of whether someone says Yahweh is speaking today.

How can the words from Revelation, which are still yet to be in a natural placement, have a power placement if Yahweh "shuts down" the Prophet office? Yahweh will not split off from His Prophet Office Traits, put out governing words in the work or Scripture, and leave the words without a driving force of active prophet placement to push the words forward in natural living. Prophecy must stand, which requires the active Prophet trait that Yahweh carries, a continual prophet placement in even silent seasons when Yahweh doesn't say anything.

LET'S BRING REAL ENGAGEMENT

YAHWEH GIVES A FINAL SAYING ON HIS PLACING:

Yahweh says the plan (message, writing, letter, etc.) FIRST, bringing it out from eternity and into time-based living. What must happen next (in the plan of the prophetic saying) is very important. The one who hears the words from Yahweh and will give a report must not embellish or bring forward their own understanding (added notes, thoughts, or opinion) when saying Yahweh's words. The prophet or general hearer must REPEAT Yahweh's words in the same format or context as how Yahweh gives them.

But here is the problem with the current Church placing: THE CHURCH gatherings are not enabled to hear from Yahweh as the prophets of old did. Due to this inability to hear Yahweh speak in unhindered ways, some embellish or put their way first and call it "words from Yahweh." THE CHURCH and the ERA THE CHURCH WALKS IN are referenced here, not how people engaged Yahweh throughout all of time. The Church is covered by a blanketing, bringing hindering ways to take in heavy sayings from Yahweh. Covenants are active in bringing Yahweh's will forward, and under active covenants are active requirements that shape how Yahweh governs and how humans engage Yahweh.

Why are you a scapegoat, Justin? You represent someone who gives the impression that Yahweh has duct tape over His mouth and is unable to ACTIVELY ENGAGE His creation. The way of a Church sect makes it seem that there is no possibility for Yahweh, who actively holds together all of creation, to actively bring intervention in whatever method or plan Yahweh wills. Can't Yahweh do what He wills in Heaven and on Earth? Is Yahweh hindered from saying prophetic sayings that will bring a course correction when needed?

Can you tell Me that your favorite reformers were not yielding course corrections? What favorite preacher of today steers your way? Think carefully. They carried this same spiritual deficiency in the days of the early Church, where the people wanted to say they were under one person over another. Shouldn't there be a plan to yield to following Scripture and not sitting in any gathering that labels one group "Charismatics" and branding the other as "Cessationists?"

Is it written in your Scriptures that Yahweh no longer speaks? I can give a real understanding of the Hebrews Book, and it isn't fully lining up with how you see. Your Church way is drinking what they were told, repeated sayings. Churches are only repeating words they heard without actually taking a moment to seek wisdom from Yahweh. How would Yahweh lead you and guide you? Of course, through written sayings, but the way people interpret what is written is not synced with Yahweh's way of viewing these things. The Church is blanketed in how they hear Yahweh, unable to hear Me in real living ways as the prophets from the days of old did, under the old covenants. But the covenants do not gate Me. I am not hindered based on someone saying, "That's all that was told."

GET RID OF THE REGURGITATED SAYINGS

SUSANNA / SEERSGATE:

"How can the person who pens these words hear Yahweh?" It's easy to explain. Yahweh enabled me to hear Him in word-for-word conversations since I was a young teenager. Off and on, Yahweh would yield engagement. No soaking music played to hear Yahweh, and I had no earthly trainer who taught me the prophet traits. Yahweh just started speaking as if He sat near me. Over a thirty-year novice way of learning Yahweh's will in this phase of the current Church era, Yahweh trained me on spiritual engagement within both kingdoms using various unseen beings.

YAHWEH IS NOW LEADING:

Servant, let's give even greater seeing in this Kingdom placing.

Curses can be overruled. Yahweh can yield overruling placements that bring a breaking of a law or a governing curse. One minute, there is death. And in the next moment, Yahweh would bring a breaking of death to overrule it. That's what was shown even with the raising of Lazarus. Yahweh yields curses, but Yahweh can break that curse with a new will. Yahweh can say, "Here, in this natural living, there will be a curse on all who are naturally birthed into this earth."

But in that same natural living of the human race, I can bring an overruling to the current placing of the culture. I can say, "There needs to be a course correction to bring the Church into order. The Church culture follows what they see, what seems better in their own eyes. Let Me look at all who are to come into natural living and pick a servant who will obey My will and lead the people the way Yahweh says."

I do not separate the Prophet office based on the gender of the one who says My will. I impart prophet traits into the person, and they drink from the true Source of all real prophetic sayings, Yahweh. I do not give one message to men and a different one that caters to how a woman is cursed in lowered placement in the governing of her married living. This is the way My Spirit brings drinking in prophet matters, yielding My will to the one who will serve Me and yield My word into the people.

You are My scapegoat due to your regurgitated hearing. You say what plan you hear your spiritual governing would say in their regurgitated sayings, but you still seek Yahweh for what could be when you purposely attend churches that have speakers of false ways, taking on "research" to build up your way. Why do you call yourself an evangelist? Are you trying to root out the false ones within the churches? Why not label yourself as something else: a hungry man who craves to have some backing of an active God on Earth?

You want real proof, not of your faith but of the way We engage Our creation. "Where is the balance within Christian living?" is your view. Where is the movement from Yahweh? There is no written proof that Yahweh could not currently engage His creation using any method. Even in Revelation, there yields two prophets, witnesses who will say Yahweh's great will. Shouldn't there be an understanding of a season of quiet? Shouldn't that way look similar to what was done between the Old and New Testaments when there was that "short" period of silence? Shouldn't Yahweh be able to bring forward a course correction whenever Yahweh sees the churches are following what they feel is better? Shouldn't Yahweh be quiet yet speak again when needed?

Now hear Yahweh.

It is time to bring real judgment to all of My churches with a viewing of their way. To say We will take a view of how the churches carry themselves, Yahweh will need to bring a backing of power. Not these fake ways of saying it and begging that Yahweh backs up the words. Look at this way and read what Yahweh says FIRST: I will take a look at every church group that says they are under Yahweh and will bring a cleansing forward using a spiritual way. I will turn My face from those who worship lowercase gods, and I will bring forward Old Testament-level judges who will bring mini ways of course corrections to prepare the world for the return of Christ. Here, I speak clear sayings.

What do We need from your way? Do We need you to back Yahweh? Do We? Yahweh needs no one; Yahweh is not dependent upon the human. Yahweh is self-standing, able to bring forward His plan without any human backing. I AM Who I AM.
