

ARE YOU A REAL PROPHET OR A PRETENDER?

Judgments of the LORD God Yahweh

June 8, 2023

10:14 p.m.

YAHWEH SAYS ALL OF IT:

Let Me speak freely. Let Me bring My way of division.

I am angry. The people want to hear these fake prophets tell them what is in their house or who they are with and give them promises of wealth and health. Where are those real power prophets who will say the will of the LORD? Where are those who bow down to God Yahweh and tell the people what I say? Where are the real prophets who will not tell lies in My name? Where are those who are living a holy life and will not bend to people-pleasing? Where are you, prophets? Stand up and make your way known, and say Yahweh says the will.

You are saying you are a prophet. Are you one version of a church-built layout, or were you under the will of Yahweh, trained by My hand? Are you saying, "I feel God said it," or are you hearing Me and will stand by Me and say, "Yahweh told me"? Are you a real prophet? Please stop placing prophets and those with the gift of prophecy in the same treatment; two different measures are used. An office prophet must have Yahweh's gift in office-level seeing and hearing to be in tune with hearing the will of the Lord. A non-office placement will carry a blanket covering I put on the whole Church.

You are a confused person to have this feeling that every Christian will hear Me speak in a placement as a prophet of the old time. I gave out a power placement that enabled people to hear. But with the general Church, I put a filter on the people and took away the depth of ability to hear Me. You may feel My presence near. You may have a reminder from My Word. You may feel Me saying to share something. But with a way of covering the whole Church, I stripped away the ability to hear and see as if in written Bible times. But that doesn't mean that there will not be people who rise up and can hear Me. A purpose must stem for why they need to hear.

The covering of the Great Holy Spirit gives the Body of Christ the gifts, governed and distributed as the Great Holy Spirit wills. There is no human who can make the Great Holy Spirit give them a gift. And no classroom can activate you in a gift. Yahweh gives the gifts, and only Yahweh distributes them as He sees fit.

You are a real prophet, you say? Then why are you hiding behind phrases such as "I believe I can make an error when saying Yahweh said it"? If Yahweh is speaking to you in a direct word-for-word conversational engagement, there will be no guessing. You will know He is leading your way.

And I want the Body of Yahweh to be prepared for the coming of judges. I will bring heavy judgment against the churches for how they deserted Me and went after these fake ways of idols in clay. These human clay people are worshipped. The ways of opinion are placed on a pedestal. Both sides of the Christian Reformation ways think that they have the right way. But both sides are faulty. There were no reformations in the early Church due to how they were on one accord and stomped out those who would lead the human "sheep" astray.

Where are those prophets who will say that sin is in the camp and needs to be dealt with? Where are those prophets of Yahweh who will say there must be holy living, clean hands, and a pure heart? If you say you hear Yahweh, why are you making people pay for deliverance? Why are you telling them to seal their way with an offering? Why are you acting as a witch and going on your own placing and calling yourself a title I did not give you? Did I train you? You say a witch doctor gave you your calling. Then you cover up the witch doctor's placing and label him a daddy apostle, prophet, or church leader. I did not call you. You speak falsely in the name of the LORD.

Woe. Woe. Woe. The wickedness has reached the church altars, and Satan's way has taken leadership. I will visit every church and weigh where your heart is. I will view your messages. I will look upon your fake faces of smiles and promises and will bring you down to the debased ways. I will curse you and take your income. I will take away My presence and remove My covenant and place it upon one who will serve Me. Why are you still able to live and breathe? I give you air to breathe. I give you a placement to stay living, for surely, I could look your way and make you dissolve with a sigh.

Woe to you wicked workers. You give Me a bad name with your promises of your best life now, and you have joinings with a bride of Satan. My anger is strong against you. How dare you say they are this and that now and not tell them the Gospel? Why are you leading so many to the lake of fire? Why are you not dead yet? My grace covers even these wicked preachers.

How dare you say, "We are evolving"? What preacher are you? Are you standing with Yahweh, or are you Satan's worker? For you allowed a crossdresser to lay hands upon you for a tip in little income and pretended to be in the Spirit. Woe. Woe. Get your way in order. A real prophet will easily speak a death sentence at Yahweh's will and take you from earthly living. And down into the pit, you will stay until judgment. Woe. Woe. I could have a plan to seal your fate into the lake of fire for how you tricked the people, to tell them, "It's okay to live in sin."

Woe. Woe. Woe. You wicked man! You cannot tell you should not have a church platform? Step down if you know you are not called to that placement. Do your will and get as close to sin in private but do not bring a church outlet down into the pit of Hell with your way. These are real souls you lead to the lake of fire. Be warned. I deal with teachers of the Word in a harsher manner.

Woe. Woe. Woe. It is now the time to start stripping the people, and I will bring torment to those who are in leadership placements, leading My people astray.

You say you won't let a woman say a word in your church way. What if a modern-day woman judge/warrior/office prophet comes forward? Would you have to be tormented to hear the will of the LORD?

Woe. Woe. Is it a lack of humility when a office prophet says, "The LORD says"? If Yahweh says it, say that Yahweh says it. But know that I did.

What are all those judgers doing on social media, propping up their wives, having them read Bible verses in their church house? Woe. They say they are speaking out against the woman preacher, yet they have mini church outlets on their social media from their homes. Some would say, "They are not pastors," but take another look: They are counseling men and women around the world and giving them their interpretation. A loophole, for they are doing the same plan but now in their homes. Hypocrites. Watch yourself. You are just as much in error, for in Paul's day, the people gathered in houses and spread the Word. And the woman was not given a plan to speak in the service gatherings. But now, those who judge have their wives on their shows judging while doing what they judge others about. "Shut up and sit down" was Paul's placement. "No woman must have a platform" was Paul's plan.

But now I look at how there must be a reformation. But I will not grant that with a church prophet or pastor. I trained a woman to hear, see and engage Yahweh on a level that has never been done, even with Moses. "Wow, how can you say such prideful things?" That's how they look at it because they put mere mortals on pedestals, not even seeing how there are still prophets yet to come. The Book of Revelation states two powerful prophets yet to come, who will speak My will. Are they false due to how humans closed up what is written? All of what was done in the times when King Jesus walked the earth is not written down. Does that say that what was not written down that King Jesus did was not actually from Yahweh?

Woe. Woe. Woe. Judgment is coming. Preach the Word.

You are not an evangelist if you only visit church gatherings and speak about what the other side is doing wrong. Where are your souls won for the LORD?

You think that you know Me. You may have books and commentaries and loyal followers, but what is missing is an understanding that there can be a new way to give into the Church ways. Prophecy must continue. Yahweh is literally using prophecy to hold all of the plans together. And to strip away prophetic words is to strip away the "Prophet" trait from Yahweh Himself. Yahweh gives office prophets the enablement to work in office placements. Yahweh trains prophets and apostles for the work. And that is why no human can call, activate, or make any human take on office placements.

Do not be tricked. To the one who carries their pastor's coat or church leader's purse: that will not give you Kingdom points with Yahweh. Sitting on the second row or holding down your favorite seat will not make you have favor with Me. Giving till it "hurts" will not make Me owe you. Stop following these faith healers who say their serum or liquid will make you healthy and wealthy. Stop begging a man to be a god. No human will be a god on any level. No human can declare anything into existence. Make Me a star in the heavens if you think you carry God-level traits.

Go into the hospitals and heal everyone if you say you carry an office placement of unlimited healing. You say you can make tornadoes return up into the sky. Then remove storms and other killer plans and bring leveled atmosphere.

Please do not say I need you. I do not need any human. I am self-standing. I do not thrive on having the love of the people. I AM WHO I AM. No one can make Me feel better.

Where are the real prophets who will stand with boldness and say what I say to say? It is not pride to boldly say the LORD said anything.

It is a real prophet who will stand with Yahweh even when no one would stand with that prophet. Most prophets mentioned in Scripture were not liked. They gave hard judgments and spoke without caring about how the people would react. They did not say, "I believe God is saying this or that." They said, "Yahweh, the LORD says it."

What is wrong with the church outlets? Many different areas. Many different areas need to be reviewed.
