

PROTECTOR KING JESUS

SEERSGATE IS SHARING:

I remember walking through a local cemetery a few years ago. I walked those grounds without any other human who came with me. And there, in the graveyard, while being trained in Yahweh's work, I saw a person also nearby. I could not distinguish that person's face, but I could tell it was a male. I became a little uneasy about the notion of being alone in a public place that was still not heavily trafficked. But while moving through the graves, I heard King Jesus say not to be afraid.

And here I was, with my way afraid with heavy heart motions, trying to hide what I felt. Then Yahweh spoke and said a more straightforward meaning of what that would mean for Him to give protection: If that man attempted to hurt me, physically violate me, my God would literally go forth and kill that stranger. I could not understand why my God would defend me in this manner since He does not do the slaying of strangers when others are violated. Even when I was a young child, I was continually violated, yet those men and women still live. What is Yahweh saying? Let's seek His wisdom.

YAHWEH IS SPEAKING:

Do not seek Me, servant. You know the answer. You just fear how it would be perceived. Say it.

SEERSGATE SAYS HER THINKING:

I will clearly state that I know no one else who deals with this training and with spirit engagement at the level given. I feel like no one can say with me, "Yeah, Yahweh takes me through spirit engagement to learn to be a deliverer to the people.” That’s where I sometimes feel the need to see King Jesus as if He is fleshly, like when He came and visited His disciples after His resurrection.

Well, while hearing Yahweh share His ways of how He would protect me, not me, but the message given to speak in His name, I can look at how vital those forty angels with me are in this plan. The angels protect the message, and I happen to be the one Yahweh is in covenant with.

I work for Yahweh, and I carry a world-level message geared to bring in a new era, which will provide an avenue for a major outpouring of a glory level that will give an avenue for healing rooms. Wow, all from one message carried in the spiritual womb of a servant. And Yahweh now guards me well, not because I am better than anyone else, but so that there would be no hindering way to bring me into a territory of Satan, whether with sexual invasion or demonic actions.

And here I now stand, fully aware as to the reason for the restrictions on what I can watch on TV and read in books. People get offended because I do not engage them through private chats, not seeing that they may be innocent, but others have sent me pornography and stated graphic, inappropriate sayings.

There is no need to wonder. Yahweh would not take a chance and have someone defile me because the message within is given for this servant to speak. Everyone has a real purpose. We are not cookie-cutter versions of His children, looking and doing what everyone else does. King Jesus walks with me when in the cemetery, telling me that this Age of the Antichrist needs to be pushed forward so that the healing rooms will come. I will yield.
